AUGUST SPEAKER

David Bean

David Bean strives to capture the true essence of the people he is photographing to bring out the qualities that make them who they are. His goal is to shoot his subjects in a way that flatters them — casting them in the best light, literally and figuratively.

As a commercial photographer and videographer David understands his job is not about himself, but is about increasing the clients' bottom line. To that end he creates photos that are edgy yet at the same time give respect to the principles that make images timeless — striking a balance of style and substance.

Dury's is Moving this Fall

New location expected to be open October 1
